WORK EXPERIENCE

NBCUniversal

Mar 2017 – Present

Sr. Producer/Video Photographer/Editor of Branded Content

- As a producer, was responsible for the planning, leading and executing productions; including sponsored brand integrations, short-form commercial content and television segments across broadcast, digital and social platforms.
- As a photographer, assumed the role of team's premier Directors of Photography, working closely with our Creative Directors and Show Runners to capture brand stories and film for various show productions over a range of tonalities.
 - Filmed short-form custom-content commercials and integrated segments for brands. (including U.S. Army, Hill's Pet Nutrition, Ford, L'oreal, Dietz & Watson, Paris Olympics)
 - On retainer video shooter across local network shows and platforms. (including Peacock, 1st Look, George To The Rescue, Open House NYC, New York Live)
 - Involved with the operations team in decision-making for camera/lighting investments.
 - Experience troubleshooting tech and making creative decisions in real-time on site.
- As a video editor, worked on short-form client content in an environment with high production standards, working closely between creative team and external client
 - Creative mindset in editing - with story, pacing, and brand tone at the focal point.
 - Use of motion GFX, animation, sound design techniques to communicate messaging
 - Became the go-to editor to create dazzling, short-form sizzle/hype reels for our team.
